Munshies in English Schools.

237. MR. M. R. MADHAVA VARIAR (Chengannur cum Pattanamtitta): Will the Government be pleased to state:

(a) how many Munshies were appointed in Secondary Schools during this year;

(b) what their qualifications are;

(c) whether Munshies from vernacular schools had applied for these posts; and

(d) if so, what the qualifications and services of those applicants are?

MR. S. PARAMESVARA AIYAR (Secretary to Government):

(a) Two Sanskrit Munshies were appointed during 1099.

(b) Both of them have passed the Mahopadhyaya examination.

(c) Applications from two Munshies employed in Vernacular Schools were received in 1098 and they have been filed in the office of the Inspector of English Schools.

(d) Both the Munshies have passed the Vidvan examination. The service of one of them is 10½ years, while that of the other cannot be known from his application.
